Hats off to you LucyAnn!

Dedication

was shared by everyone including a passionate letter from her daughter.

In the words of e.e. cummings which express that day and all the days of LucyAnn's presidency:

i thank you God for most
this amazing
day: for the leaping greenly spirits of trees and a blue true dream of sky; and for everything which is natural which is infinite which is yes
(I who have died am alive
again today,
and this is the sun's birthday; this is the birth day of life and of love and wings: and of the gay great happening illimitably earth)

how should tasting
touching hearing seeing breathing any — lifted
from the no
of all nothing — human merely being doubt unimaginable You?
(now the ears of my ears awake and now the eyes of my eyes are opened)

Under the leadership of Dr. LucyAnn Geiselman, Mount Vernon has maintained and improved its high standard of academic achievement.

In admiration of her extraordinary ability, high ideals, dedication, and untiring labor, in appreciation for keeping Mount Vernon alive for us, and in gratitude for her personal interest in students, the Phoenix of 1993 is lovingly dedicated to Doctor LucyAnn Geiselman.

Seniors Mary Rousseau (left) and Kristi Johnson stand with Dr. Geiselman on her inauguration day.

In the year of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety Two, the college stood nestled between the German and Belguim Embassies off of Foxhall Road. It was in that year that Doctor LucyAnn Geiselman came to the aide of Mount Vernon in the spirit of Florence Nightingale.

In those restless days, she came with the spirit of integrity, enthusiasm, love, and hope that was needed for the College to shine. Her passionate love for challenges and spunky nature won her hearts from the Mount Vernon family.

So much so, she was inaugurated on September 18th, 1992 as Mount Vernon's 8th president. On her special day, an overwhelming spirit of pure happiness and love

COLLEGE REPUBLICANS

On this campus, there is a group of young, dedicated and energetic women who are devoted to the Republic cause. A group called the College Republicans was created to channel this enthusiasm into productive, effective Republican political work.

The members of this club were active in the BUSH/QUALYE '92 campaign, and will be an unstoppable force in the 1996 Presidential campaign. They were also called upon for support by several other political candidates during the 1992 election year, and to make a name for themselves throughout the D.C. Metro Area.

The College Republicans although, are not all work and no play. During and after the campaign season, the members enjoyed a variety of social events from a Presidential party and pep rally to meeting other college republicans at C.R. parties located throughout the D.C. area in all the D.C. colleges and universities. This is a club which knows how to make its voice heard while having fun in the process.
